

Archdiocese of St. Louis Social Media Community Guidelines

Our social media pages serve as hubs for informative and uplifting content related to the Archdiocese of St. Louis and its various agencies, ministries, parishes and schools.

We welcome engagement with our posts—including asking questions, sharing content, and commenting—but to provide a positive experience for all, we ask that you adhere to the following guidelines:

Comments must be respectful and relate directly to the topic at hand. Refrain from posts and comments that are off-topic or that may be divisive and may promote contentious debate. Any comments that defame, harass, threaten, violate privacy, are in direct conflict with core teachings of the Catholic Church, contain profanity or that might be otherwise considered offensive will be removed. Spam comments are prohibited.

We reserve the right at our discretion to remove any comments that do not comply with these guidelines or to ban a user should violations be repeated.

Last Updated January 2025