

Kenrick Day Book 1864-1875
Record Number FNCL/2116

It is not certain whether Archbishop Peter Richard Kenrick personally maintained this day book. Due to Kenrick's heavy involvement with the diocesan finances, this ledger is included in the Archbishop Peter Richard Kenrick Papers.

This day book contains records for money received from rental properties and cemetery business. The first part of the book covers September 1, 1864 through December 17, 1868, and comprises mixed entries for both the rental properties and the cemeteries, which include Holy Trinity Cemetery, Calvary Cemetery, and Sts. Peter and Paul Cemetery. Money was received for lot purchases, grave digging, internments, and funeral services. Names may be recorded of the deceased and/or the person paying the fee.

On page 267, the records for the Calvary Cemetery Association begin on April 3, 1867. The records conclude on July 1, 1875 on page 426. Money was received for lot purchases, grave digging, internments, and funeral services. Names may be recorded of the deceased and/or the person paying the fee.
