

Christ's Light Among Us Photo Contest Announcements

Pulpit Announcement

As part of the archdiocese's celebration of the Bicentennial, the Archdiocese of St. Louis is inviting the faithful to participate in the Christ's Light Among Us Photo Contest.

Parishioners of all ages are encouraged to submit photos that show where the light of Christ is seen in everyday life or in sacred spaces that draw us closer to Him.

Submissions will be accepted through May 10. Selected photos will be featured across archdiocesan communications and displayed at the Bicentennial Jubilee Mass on July 18, 2026.

Please see the parish bulletin or the archdiocesan website for details on how to participate.

Pulpit Reminder Announcement

A reminder from the archdiocese that submissions for the Christ's Light Among Us Photo Contest are due soon.

We encourage you to share a photo that reflects where you see the light of Christ—through acts of kindness, moments of prayer, or places of beauty.

The deadline to submit your photo is May 10. Selected photos will be featured across archdiocesan communications and displayed at the Bicentennial Jubilee Mass this July.

Please see the parish bulletin or the archdiocesan website for complete details.

Bulletin Copy

Bicentennial Photo Contest: Christ's Light Among Us

As part of the archdiocese's ongoing celebration of the Bicentennial, the Archdiocese of St. Louis has launched the Christ's Light Among Us Photo Contest.

Parishioners of all ages are invited to submit photos that show where the light of Christ is seen in everyday life or in sacred spaces that draw us closer to Him.

Entries may be submitted in one of two age categories:

1. Youth

Ages 18 and under, primarily cell phone photography

2. General

All ages, DSLR, mirrorless, or high-quality phone photography

Please note that employees of the Archdiocese of St. Louis are not eligible to participate.

Entries may also be submitted in one of two topic categories:

- Christ's Light in the Everyday

Where His love is lived and shared

- Sacred Spaces

Where beauty draws us closer to Him

Submissions will be accepted through May 10. Selected submissions will be featured across archdiocesan communications and social media and displayed at the Bicentennial Jubilee Mass on July 18, 2026.

Learn more and submit your photo at: archstl200.org/photocontest

Help share the light by spreading the word.

Be Part of History. Share the Light of Christ.

As part of the Archdiocese of St. Louis Bicentennial celebration, the Archdiocese of St. Louis is inviting parishioners of all ages to participate in the Christ's Light Among Us Photo Contest.

Take a photo that shows where you see the light of Christ—through acts of kindness, moments of prayer, or places of beauty that draw us closer to Him.

Submissions will be accepted through May 10. Selected photos will be featured across archdiocesan communications and displayed at the Bicentennial Jubilee Mass on July 18, 2026, becoming part of this historic celebration of 200 years of faith.

Entries may be submitted in one of two age categories:

1. Youth

Ages 18 and under, primarily cell phone photography

2. General

All ages, DSLR, mirrorless, or high-quality phone photography

Entries may also be submitted in one of two topic categories:

- Christ's Light in the Everyday
Where His love is lived and shared
- Sacred Spaces
Where beauty draws us closer to Him

Submissions will be accepted through May 10. Selected submissions will be featured across archdiocesan communications and social media and displayed at the Bicentennial Jubilee Mass on July 18, 2026.

Learn more and submit your photo at: archstl200.org/photocontest

Please note that employees of the Archdiocese of St. Louis are not eligible to participate.

Help share the light by spreading the word.

School Newsletter Copy

As part of the Archdiocese of St. Louis Bicentennial celebration, the Archdiocese of St. Louis is inviting students and parishioners of all ages to participate in the Christ's Light Among Us Photo Contest.

Families are encouraged to support their children in capturing and sharing where the light of Christ is seen in daily life—through acts of kindness, moments of prayer, or places of beauty that draw us closer to God.

Students may submit photos in the Youth category (ages 18 and under), while adults may participate in the General category. Entries may be submitted in one of two themes: Christ's Light in the Everyday or Sacred Spaces.

Submissions will be accepted through May 10. Selected photos will be featured across archdiocesan communications and displayed at the Bicentennial Jubilee Mass on July 18, 2026.

Learn more and submit photos at:
archstl200.org/photocontest

Youth/Student Focused Copy

Have Your Photo Seen Across the Archdiocese of St. Louis

Students are invited to take part in the Christ's Light Among Us Photo Contest as part of the Bicentennial celebration.

Take a photo that shows where you see the light of Christ—at school, at church, at home, or in your community.

Submit your photo by May 10, and your work could be featured across the Archdiocese and displayed at the Bicentennial Jubilee Mass on July 18, 2026.

archstl200.org/photocontest

Be Part of History.

Students are invited to take part in the Christ's Light Among Us Photo Contest as part of the Archdiocese of St. Louis Bicentennial celebration.

Take a photo that shows where you see the light of Christ—at school, at church, at home, or in your community.

Submit your photo by May 10, and your work could be featured across the Archdiocese and displayed at the Bicentennial Jubilee Mass on July 18, 2026, becoming part of this historic celebration of 200 years of faith.

archstl200.org/photocontest
