Historical Note

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is a Catholic lay organization that was founded in 1833 by Blessed Frederic Ozanam in Paris, France to provide assistance to the poor. The Society is organized into conferences, or all-volunteer neighborhood support groups. The conferences are grouped into district councils, which are then grouped into regions.

In 1845 Rev. John Timon, C.M., returned from Dublin, Ireland with a copy of the bylaws, and the first conference in the U.S. was formed in St. Louis. The St. Louis conference first met on November 20, 1845, and were officially recognized by the Council General in Paris on February 10, 1846. Dr. Moses Linton was the first president of the Society in St. Louis.

By 1861 there were 12 parish conferences in St. Louis. Feeling the need for a general directing agent, the Society established the Particular Council to oversee parish conferences in March 1860. Dr. Timothy Papin was elected president. Continuous expansion of the Society to other American cities led to the formation of another authoritative body in 1863, the Superior Council of St. Louis, to direct regional activity in St. Louis, Alton and Leavenworth. (The title of the Superior Council was changed to the Metropolitan Central Council in 1915.)

During the Civil War, members visited prisons and military hospitals, and helped to erect and maintain night schools for boys and young men. Other projects operated out of parishes included charitable distribution depots of food, coal and other supplies. The Society was indispensable during the cholera epidemics of the 1860s, and tornados and floods of the late 19th to early 20th centuries.

In 1896, a General Office and Central Depot was established in St. Louis to deal with the administrative work of the Society, freeing the Parish conferences to conduct active service. The Central Office formed an employment bureau in 1898. In 1899, the Society purchased a large plot at Calvary Cemetery to bury the deceased poor, regardless of race. Between 1899 and 1945, over 3800 persons were laid to rest at Calvary. In 1904 the first International Convention of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was held in St. Louis during the World's Fair. The Society helped to found Father Dunne's News Boys' Home in 1905.

During the Great Depression, the Society was flooded with relief requests. It joined in the Mayor's newly formed Citizens' Committee on Relief and Employment in 1931 to assist in providing city-wide relief services that the federal and state governments did not. In February 1932, the Society opened the Ozanam Shelter for temporarily homeless men.

The programs and developments since 1945 are too many to list here. The William Brennan Memorial Center for the blind opened in 1954. In 1957, the National Council was relocated from New York to St. Louis. In 1969, the Society experienced a renewal of interest and talent when it opened membership to women. The Criminal Justice Ministry program was established in 1979 to care for the spiritual and temporal services for inmates and their families. The first thrift store was opened in St. Louis in 1981 on Cherokee Street.

In 1900, the Society in St. Louis had close to 50 parish conferences and 1,500 members. By the year 2000, the St. Louis Metropolitan Council boasted 160 parish conferences with over 2,600 volunteers. It is still growing.

Scope and Content

Series 1: Organizational Records contains administrative files regarding the operation and documentation of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at the National and local St. Louis levels. A single bound volume of "Archives of the St. Louis Council" contains transcribed correspondence from 1860-1862. While it is labeled "volume 1," there are not additional volumes in this collection. Meeting Minutes from the St. Louis Particular Council and Metropolitan Central Council cover the years 1896 to 2011. Records are mostly arranged in chronological order with exception of oversized or bound materials. The minutes for the Metropolitan Central Council may also include meetings for the Board of Directors, executive or finance committees, or District Council. Reports consist of Annual and Year-End reports from 1901 to 2007. They include a financial summary, and sometimes provide descriptions of programs. Rules and Bylaws from 1846-2010 include international, American and local manuals, bylaws and operating procedures to guide activities of the Society in a concerted effort. Directories from 1904 to 1996 contain the contact information for conferences and members in the territory of the St. Louis Metropolitan Central Council.

Series 2: Publications includes newsletters and educational materials published by or about the Society between 1911 and 2008.

Series 3: Ministries contains records regarding specific programs and activities operated by the Society from 1932 to 2012. The files are in alphabetical order by title. Of interest are the individual client files dated 1916 to 1955 that were used to track care and services to specific families. The selection of client files was saved by someone at the Society when other files were disposed. Because of the personal nature of these files, access is restricted. Access may be granted by the Director on a case-by-case basis. The collection of burial assistance cards from the 1930s to circa 1990 are also restricted for this reason.

Series 4: Individual Parish Conferences contains the aggregation documents of individual parish conferences, correspondence, and parish conference meeting minutes. Aggregation documents from 1885 to 1997 are arranged in folders chronologically. Correspondence between parish conferences and the Central Council cover 1892-1982 and are arranged alphabetically by parish name. The series contains the meeting minutes of two specific parish conferences: North American Martyrs from 1961-2005 and St. Hedwig from 1977-1997. These were obtained by the Central Office when the two parishes closed in 2005. One file of North American Martyr client materials from 1971-1991 is restricted for privacy reasons.

Series 5: Photographs, Scrapbooks and Artifacts contains negatives, contact sheets and prints of events, projects and programs through the mid-2000s. The bulk of the photographs are the 1980s through 1990s. The set of photographs by photographer Richard Finke are arranged chronologically, and the remaining photographs are arranged alphabetically by title. Of interest is the scrapbook created by prisoners in Potosi for a Criminal Justice Ministry volunteer. There is also a folder of born-digital photographs of a 2005 meeting and Young Vincentians group in 2007.

Series 6: Audiovisual consists of educational, historical and documentary audiovisual publications in a variety of media formats, including but not limited to training videos, radio advertisements, and recordings of events, projects, classes and news coverage. Many of the items are not dated; the bulk is assumed to be from the late 1980s to 2010.
