

Compose a "Letter Home from the Frontier," imagining yourself as either a teacher in 1818, a student at the mission school, or even St. Rose herself. Your letter should vividly describe your daily routines, highlight both your joys and struggles, and reflect on the important role of prayer in your life.