

Classroom Rules of 1818

1. Arrive with the dawn – lessons rise with the sun.
2. Start in prayer – let faith light the way.
3. Speak only when bidden – quiet keeps order.
4. Stand to answer – show respect in word and stance.
5. No fidgeting – let your hands stay steady in work.
6. Obey without delay – discipline shapes strong minds.
7. Stay tidy, sit straight – neat ways show noble spirit.
8. Share tools of learning – many hands, few materials.
9. Help with the day's chores – the schoolhouse runs by shared effort.
10. Boys and girls kept apart – as tradition holds.
11. English only in these lessons – new tongues guided toward one.
12. Keep to Mass – faith anchors all study.
