Five Commitments of Archbishop Robert J. Carlson

As Outlined at the “Mass for Peace and Justice” on August 20th, 2014 at the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Louis

- 1) “I am reestablishing today the Human Rights Commission in the Archdiocese of St. Louis.”
- 2) “I am asking the Charles Lwanga Center to begin a study and offer solutions to decrease violence in our communities and in our families.”
- 3) “I pledge an ongoing commitment to provide a path way out of poverty by providing scholarships so that young people can receive a quality education in our Catholic schools.”
- 4) “I pledge my support and the support of the Archdiocese to assist the churches in the Ferguson area to deal with issues of poverty and racism.”
- 5) “I am asking each priest in the Archdiocese of St. Louis to offer a Mass for Justice and Peace.”
